(a) be loyal to the buyer.

(b) act in the buyer's best interests.

(c) give the buyer all information you give to us, even if it is confidential, unless we got the confidential information from you while we were your agent.

5.7 If we have to enforce any of our rights under this agreement and we are successful, you will pay us the costs of enforcement including our legal fees and disbursements on a solicitor/client full indemnity basis.

6. PERSONAL AND PROPERTY INFORMATION

(b) collect, maintain, use, and disclose personal and property information you give us for uses consistent with selling the property.

(c) maintain, use and disclose this information for statistical purposes.

7. AUDIO AND VIDEO RECORDINGS AND PHOTOGRAPHY

7.1 You consent to showing the property, including virtual showings using photography or videography, and acknowledge that your personal or confidential information may be seen by prospective buyers, their representatives, service providers, and others as may be required to attend the property by the prospective buyers.

7.2 You release and hold us and our brokerage representatives harmless from all legal liability due to any alleged breaches of privacy arising from showings of the property, including virtual showings using photography or videography.

7.3 You acknowledge it is unlawful to record conversations of any persons attending your property without their written consent and to have active cameras located in or on your property where privacy would be reasonably expected.

8. END OF THIS AGREEMENT

(b) Have you or your spouse resided on the property at any time since your marriage? ❑ Yes ❑ No

If you answered yes to both questions, your spouse will have to complete the Dower Consent and Acknowledgment and sign this agreement in the non-owner spouse section. This information is requested to establish whether a dower interest in the property exists. By asking these questions, the brokerage is not providing advice on dower, nor creating an agency relationship.

10.3 If any clauses added to this agreement conflict with standard clauses in this agreement, the added clauses apply.

10.4 This agreement is the entire agreement between us and you. Anything we discussed with you, or that you told us, is not part of this agreement unless it is in this agreement.

10.5 The laws of the Province of Alberta govern this agreement, and all disputes will be resolved in Alberta.

10.6 A sale is complete when all money has been paid to you or your lawyer and is releasable.

11. YOUR ACKNOWLEDGMENT

(b) you have received and read the Guide.

(c) this agreement and the payment of our fee do not make us your agent.
